ISLAMIC RELIEF

Islamic Relief is a UK-based International Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) providing humanitarian aid during emergencies and working for the long-term development of the world's poorest people. In Pakistan, Islamic Relief started its operations in 1992 and is currently working through its offices in Azad Jammu & Kashmir, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Balochistan, Sindh & Punjab provinces. The main focus areas are sustainable livelihoods, water and sanitation, orphans' welfare, microfinance, poverty graduation, disaster preparedness, and climate change.

WASYLA PROJECT

Women Aligned Sustainable Youth-Centred Livelihood Action (WASYLA) is being implemented in the Semi-urban areas of districts Islamabad, Rawalpindi, and Quetta. The project aims to uplift the most vulnerable and at-risk groups of society i.e., ultra-poor women, people with disabilities, older people, widowed families, and unemployed youth affected by urban poverty through the Poverty Graduation Approach. The project focuses on Protection Inclusion, Gender Mainstreaming, Social Cohesion, social care, support services improving resilience, and adaptation to climate change along with natural disasters of the targeted community youth and women in Islamabad, Rawalpindi, and Quetta. This will be achieved by investing in livelihood opportunities and providing skill development opportunities for the next generations.

RESEARCH GRANTS TO CONDUCT RESEARCH STUDIES ON THE WASYLA PROJECT THEMES THROUGH UNIVERSITY STUDENTS TO INFORM POLICY DECISIONS

To further enhance the project's impact and inform policy decisions, Islamic Relief Pakistan seeks to engage university students and academia to conduct research that aligns with the project's thematic areas under the WASYLA project. The research will provide evidence-based insights to help shape policies and programs for sustainable development in these communities.

OBJECTIVES OF THE RESEARCH GRANTS

The research grants are designed to:

1. Encourage and facilitate academic research that generates actionable insights to support policy and decision-making processes.
2. Generate evidence on the impact of livelihood interventions, gender mainstreaming, social cohesion, and resilience on vulnerable communities.
3. Explore innovative solutions to enhance climate change adaptation, social protection, and sustainable livelihoods.
4. Inform policy recommendations based on findings that can benefit the most vulnerable and at-risk populations in Islamabad, Rawalpindi, and Quetta.
