

Pashto First Short Story Written in Pishin, Quetta, Kandahar or J.G Lorimar's Story of Waziristan

د پښتو لومړۍ افسانه په کوټه، پښین او کندهار کېښې، که د لړم پېرنگي د وزیرستان کیسه

Abdul Karim Baryalai (Writer and intellectual, Barwary Road, Faisal Town Quetta)

Abstract:

As the very start of Pashto literature like of other literatures is vague. Similarly the first writers of some of the literary genres are also known yet.in this connection Abdul Karim Baryalai. opposing Qalandar Momand's claim argues that J.G Lorimar is not the first short story writer of Pashto literature .He states that the said story had been told to J.G Lorimar by Malak Muhammad Akber wazir, entitles "The Life style and custom of wazir's" had been written in forty sentences demonstrating the cultural values of the people of Waziristan Karim Baryalai opines that in the 10th volume of the linguistic survey of india. A story of Pashto from Pishin and Kandahar sent through the A.G.G Quetta to Grearson is actually the first Pashto short story. he further says that Mr. Ismail, the teacher and colleagues of Major roverty who was scholar of Pashto also ,might have sent first Pashto short story from Pishin/Kandahar through A.G.G Quetta linguistic survey of India.

Key words: Qalandar Momand, Pashto literature, Malak Mohammad Akbar wazir India, Pishin/ Kandahar.